

Catholic Coloring Pages

For Personal Use Only.

My kids and I love coloring--who doesn't? What I love the most about sitting down and coloring with my children are the conversations we can have as we color. he other day I was coloring with my daughter. We were coloring Disney Princesses so of course our conversations revolved around that, and I thought, won't it be nice to be coloring something beautifully meaningful, so we could talk about that instead about Snow White and Sleeping Beauty? Won't it be great to be sitting here with my daughter chatting about the sacraments and pillars of the faith with my daughter? No prep needed, just mom and child coloring and chatting about the faith.

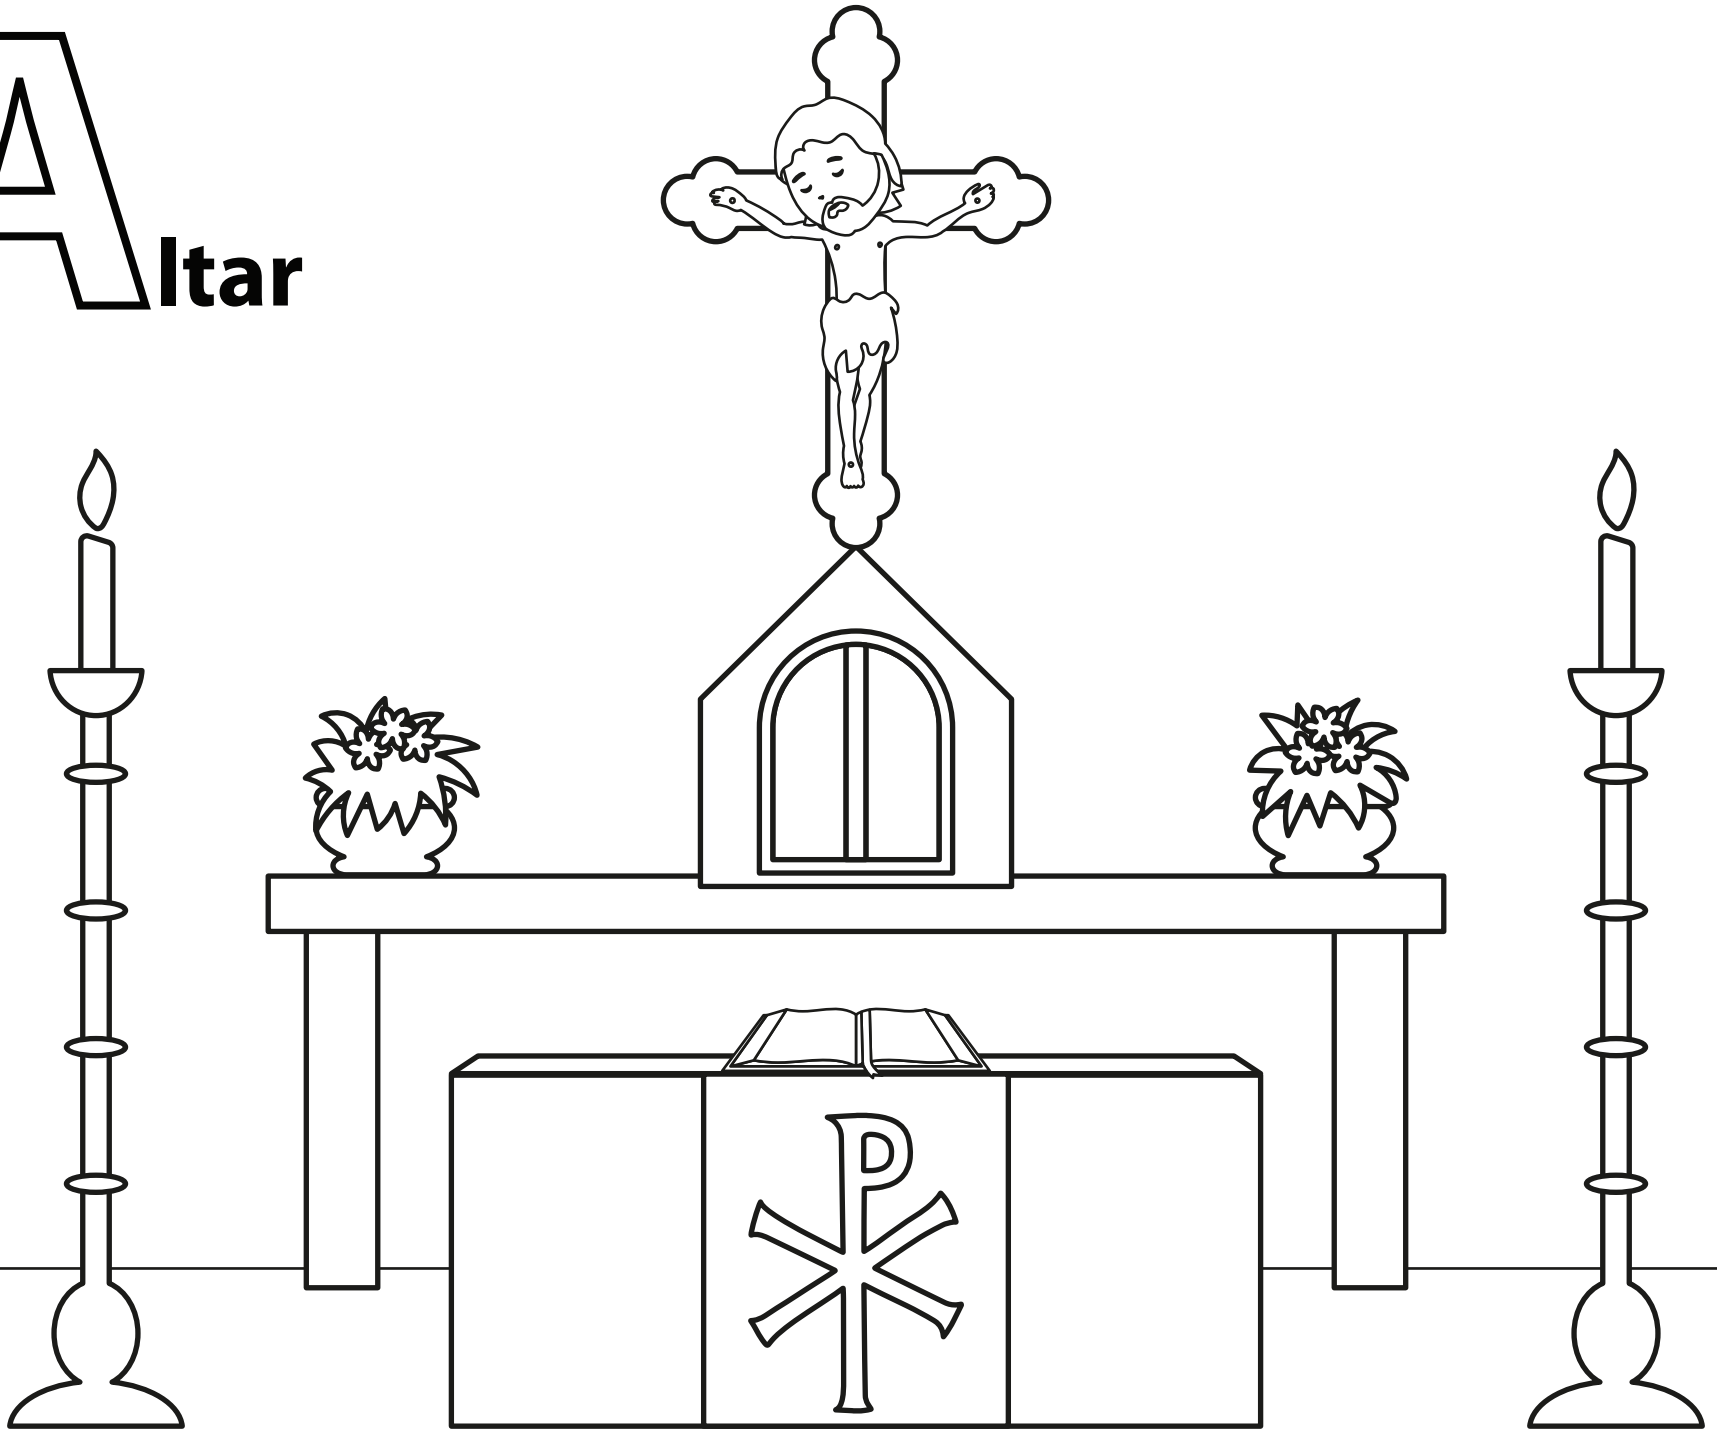

Yeah, that would be great.

So that evening I pulled out the computer and drew up 26 Catholic Coloring Pages, one for each letter of the alphabet. My two oldest and I have worked our way through the first few letters and it's been a blast! It is such a simple, organic way to teach the faith. Many of the objects or people they recognize so we can easily chat about it and dig a little deeper. I plan on using and re-using these sheets with my kids, and I hope you find them just as useful with your family or in your classroom.

Please find in the following pages a separate PDF for each letter of the alphabet. Print and color this as many times as you like and may all of our children grow up to love and cherish this beautiful Catholic Faith we share!

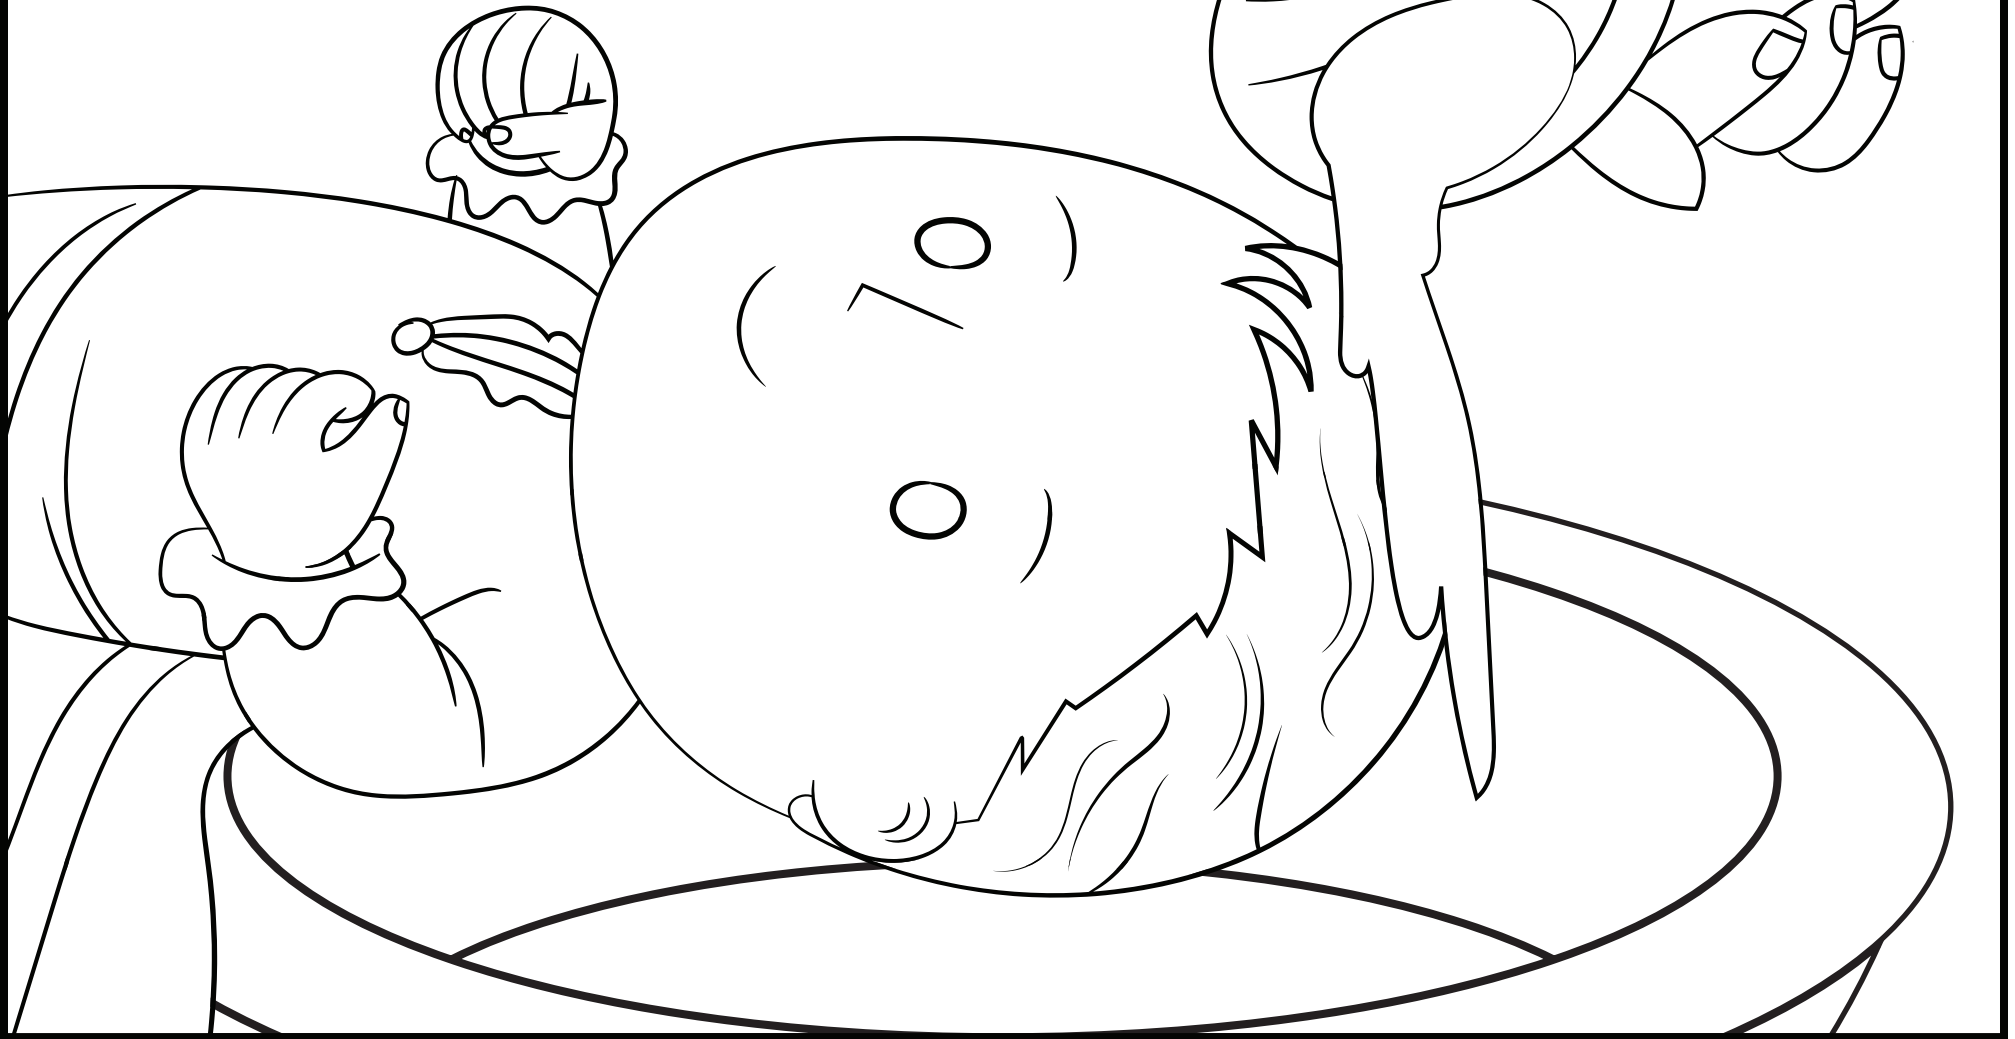

Nancy

A Altar

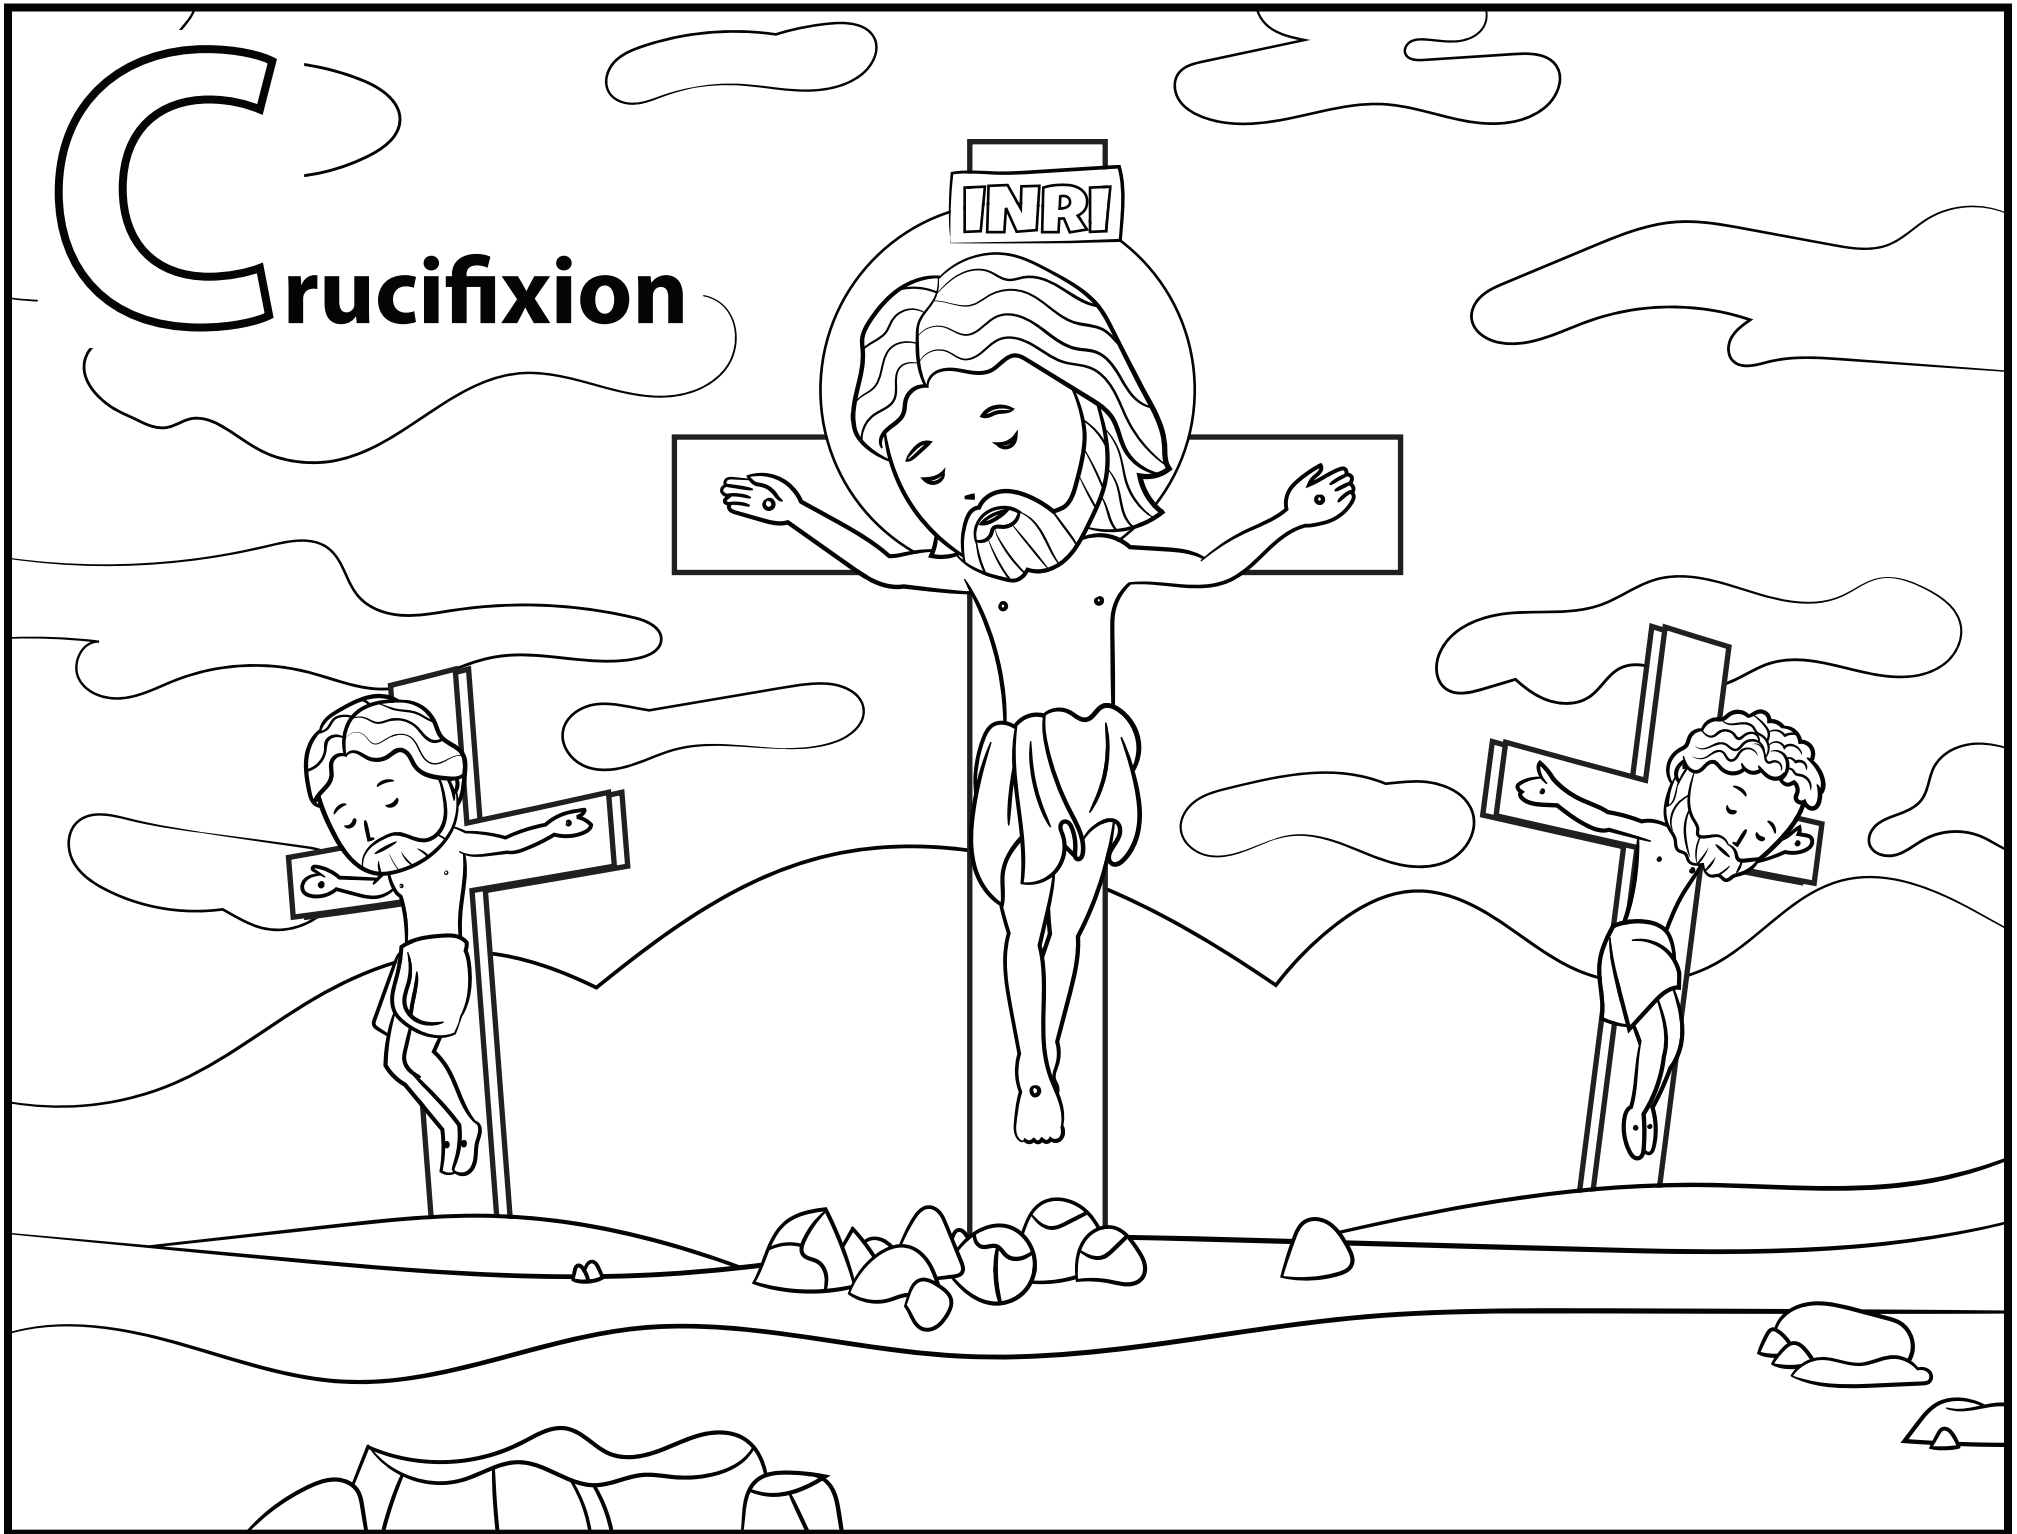

B

aptism

Crucifixion

D ivine Mercy

Eucharist

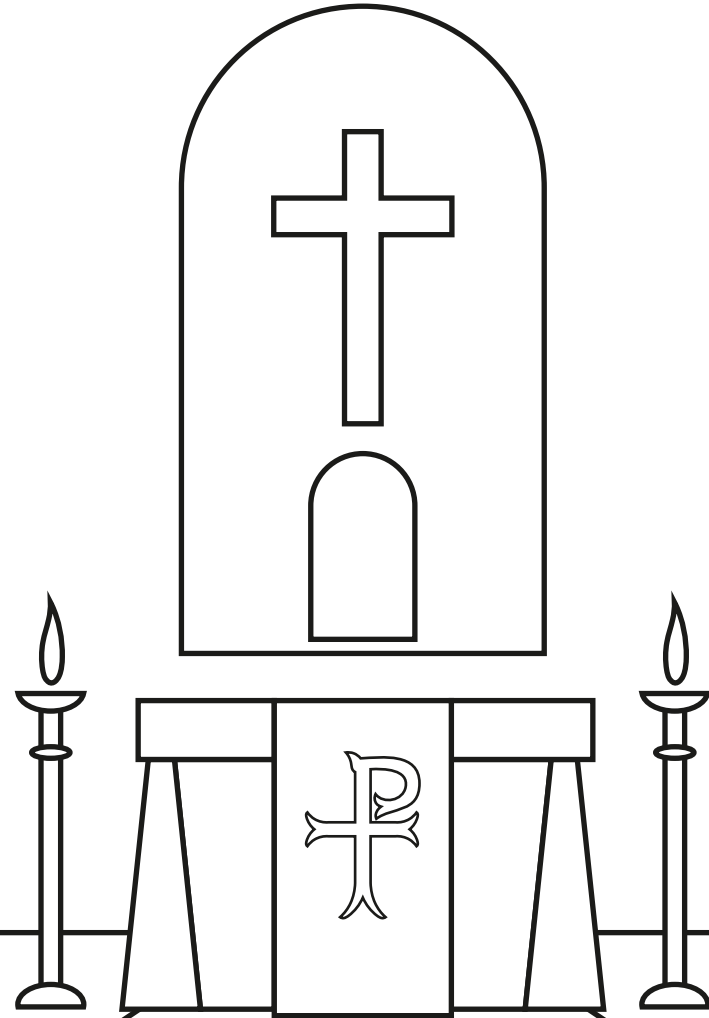

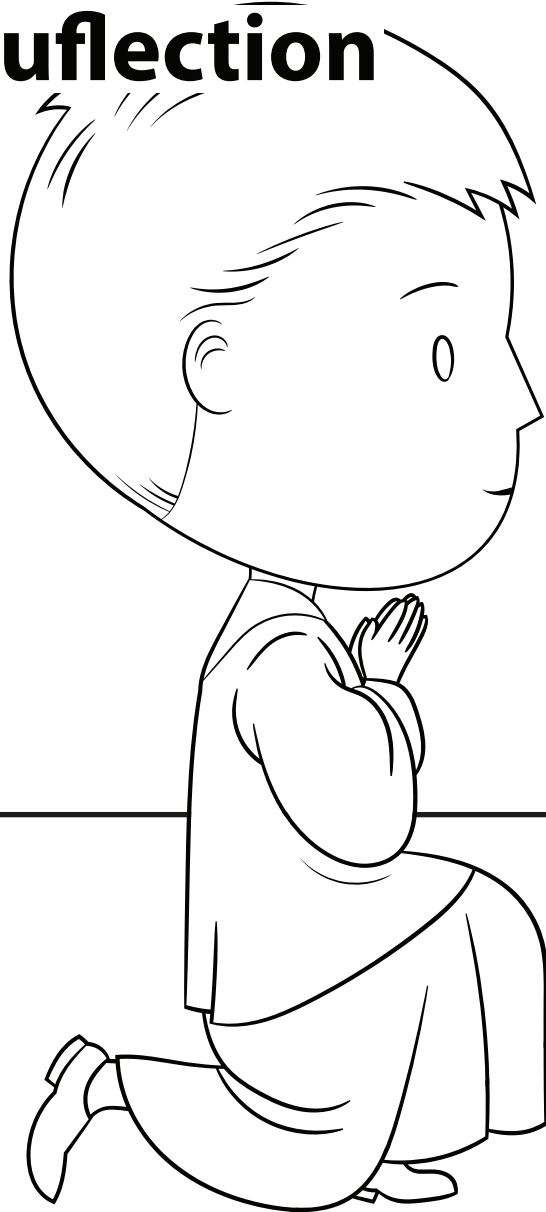

God the Father

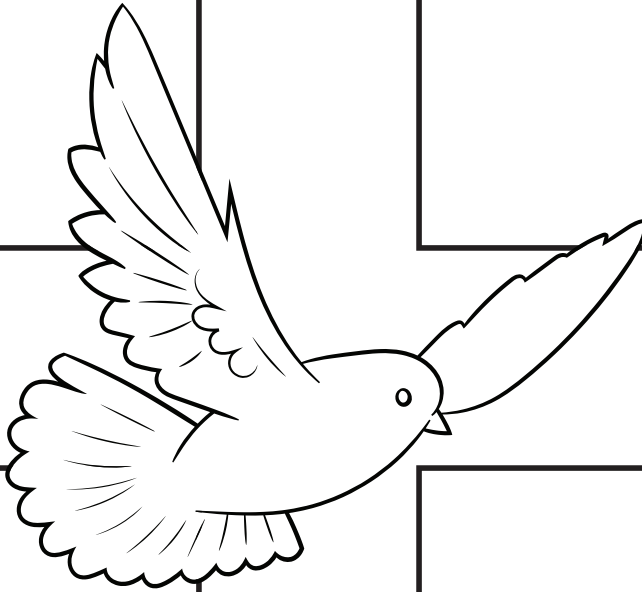

G

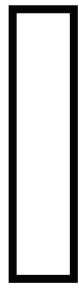

enuflection

H oly Spirit

ncarnation

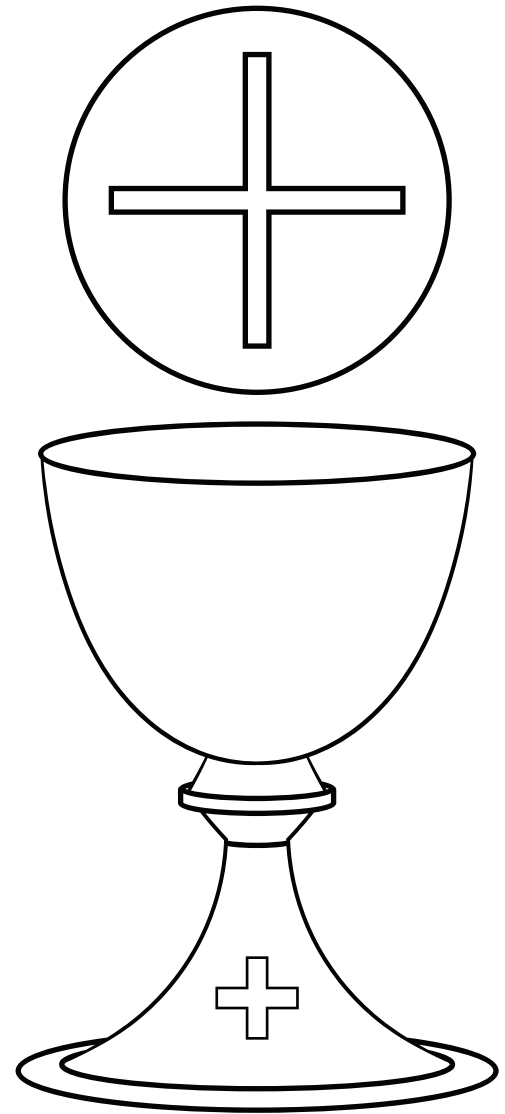

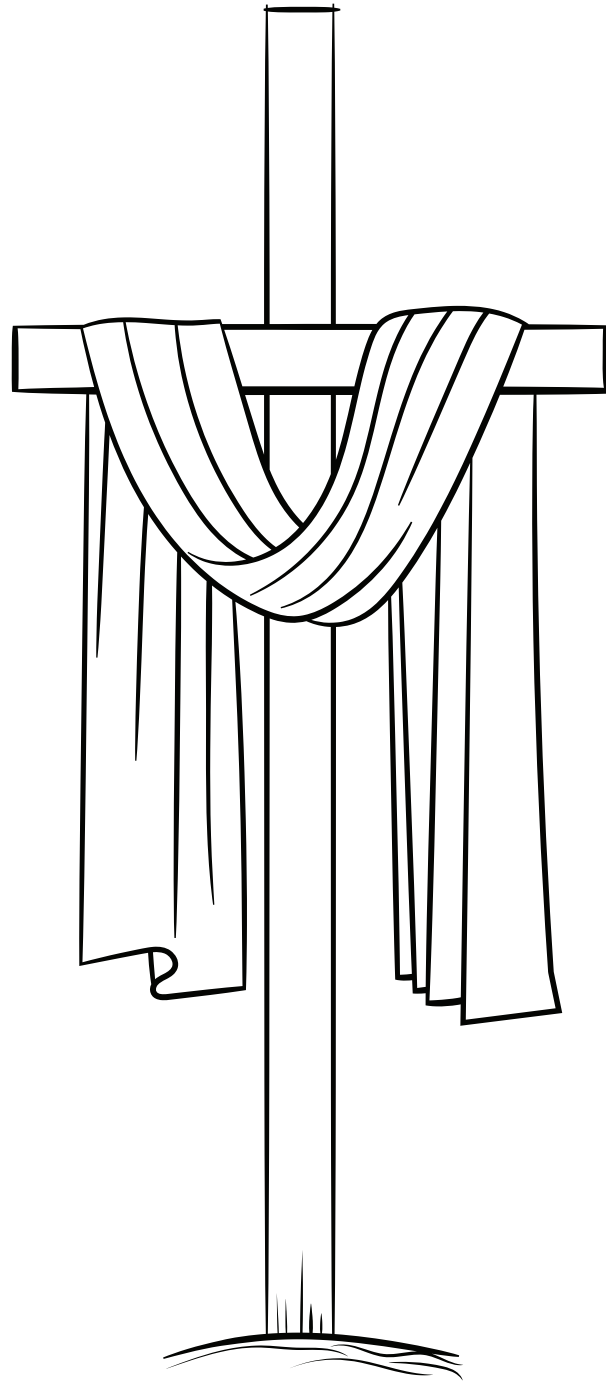

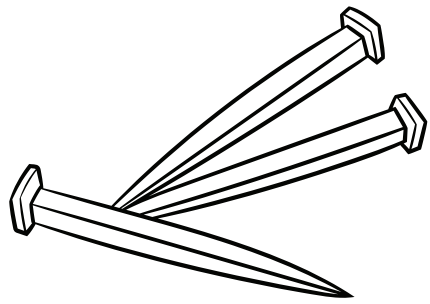

Jesus

Kingdom of God

Lent

Martyr

N un

O rdination

Pope

Queen of Heaven and Earth

Rosary

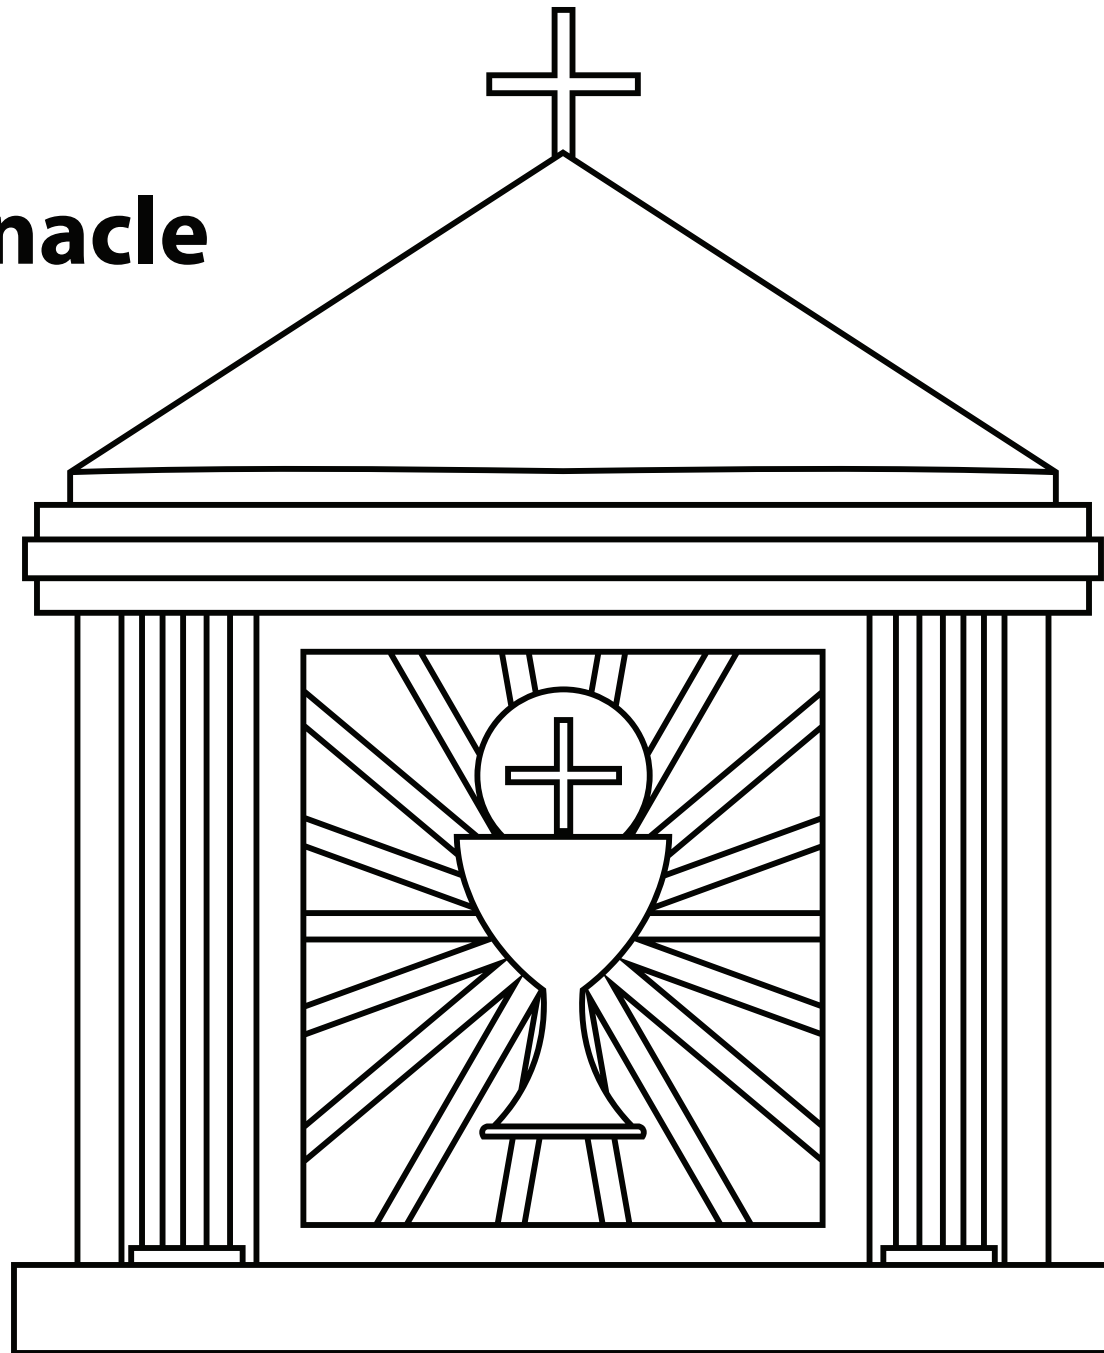

Sacred Heart

T

abernacle

U niversal Church

V

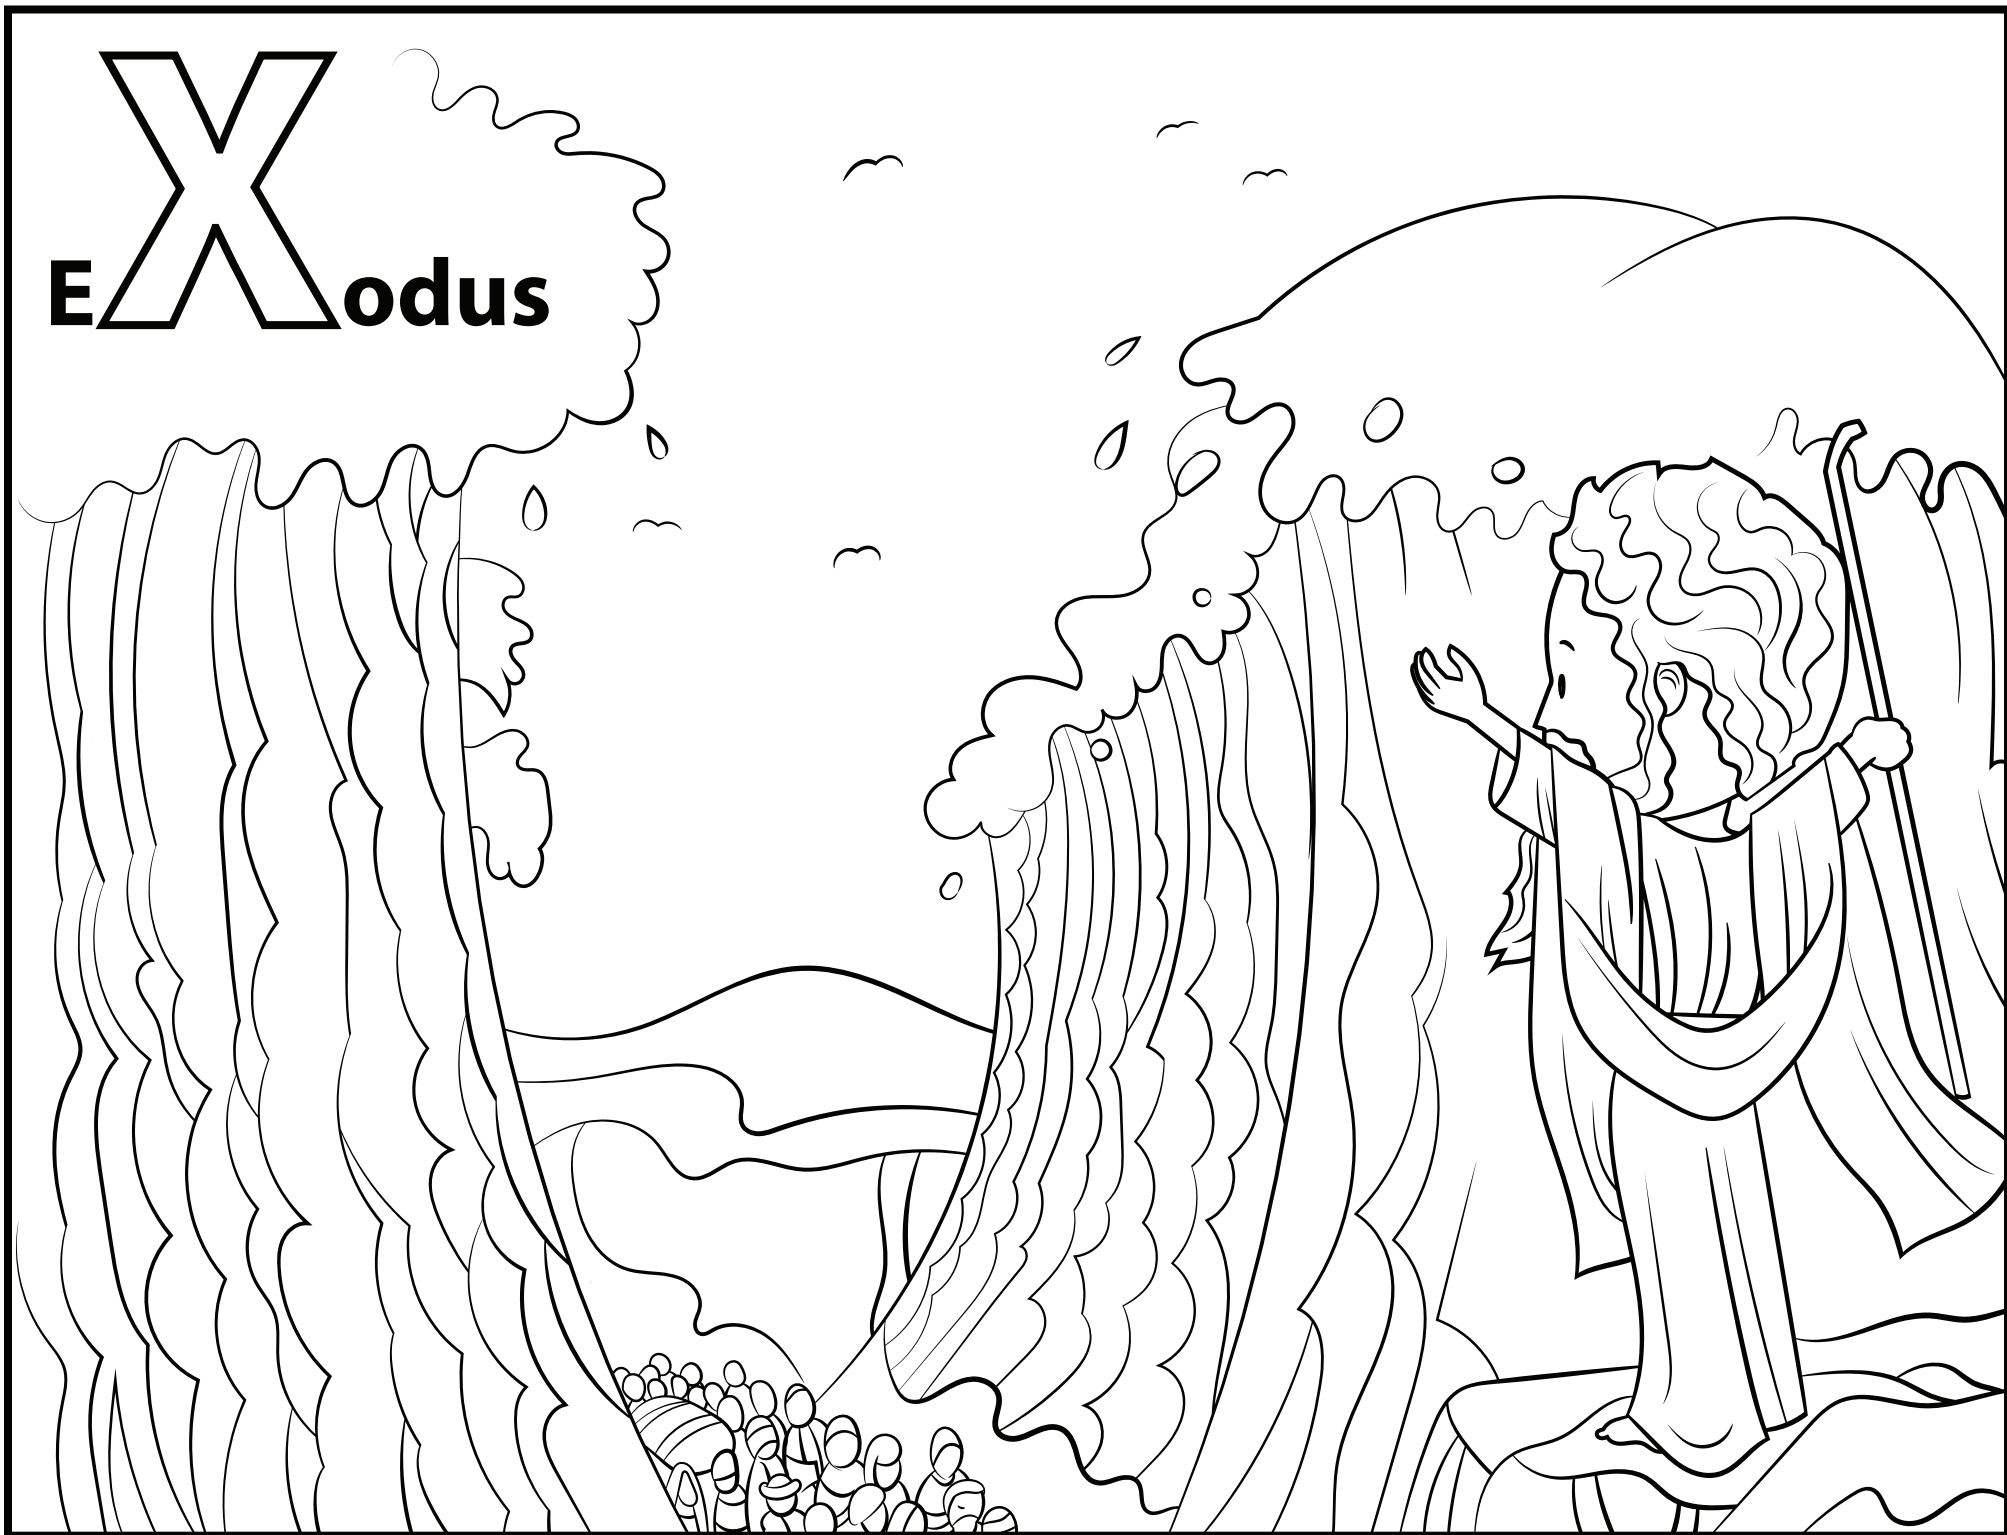

irtue

Word of God

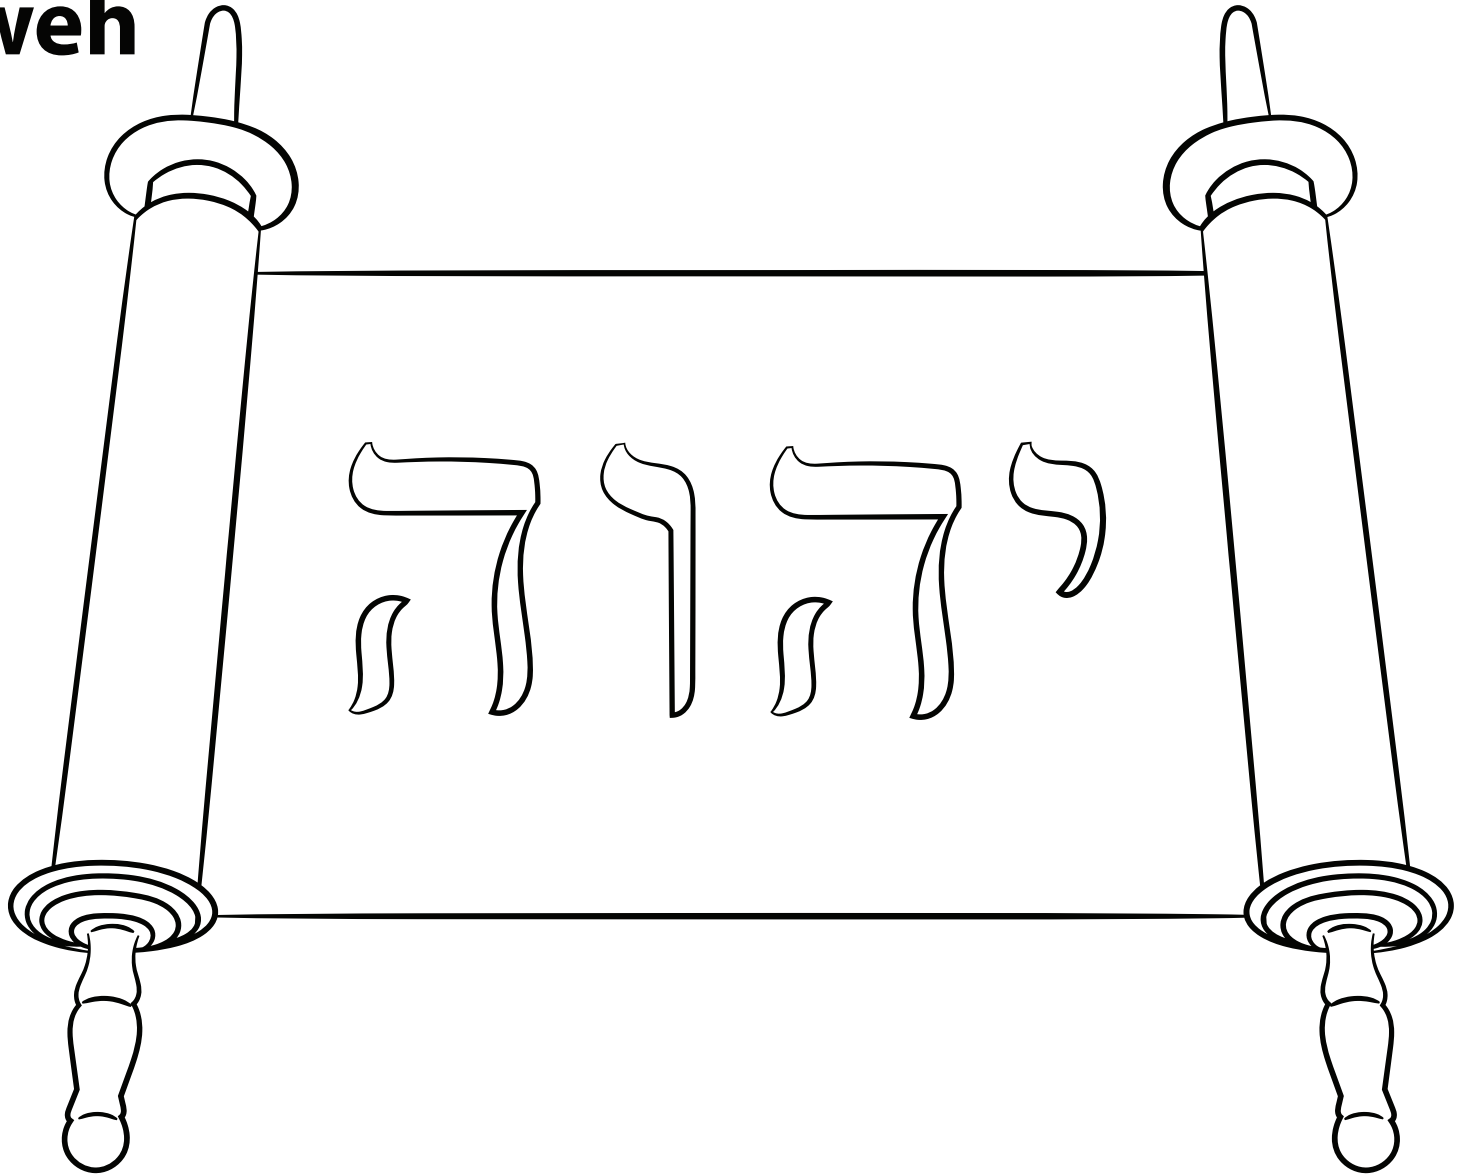

Xodus

Y

ahweh

Z Zeal

